PREFACE

Today, America is looking skyward, and in those skies as well as in her youth lies the secret of her survival, the survival of democracy and decency.

The plane has constantly been improved to make a stronger implement of warfare; and so, the high school student should prepare himself to become a defender or a builder of democracy. In comparison with the extremely complicated battleships of the air, the army of today is made up of highly technical and highly educated men. It is wanting of versatile men to compete with the rapid mutation of warfare. The factories must produce the planes; the schools of the nation must produce the men.

It should be an even race, this one between man and his machines; for without an intelligent pilot to fly it, the great weapon of the air is useless. In view of this transition of thought, the staff believes the airplane a most timely subject for the yearbook of 1942.

DEDICATION . . .

TO

Our coach and physical director

Harry S. Martin

who has built up at Lane a reputation for clean sportsmanship and hard fighting teams. The senior class of '42 hopes, as it parts from Lane, that it will leave as pleasant memories with him as those which we cherish of him.

SKETCH

That important feeling—looking down on underclassmates—singing with Mrs. Martin (it was grand fun)—Senior meetings (Eddie presided)—missing the senior trip (we did the right thing)—those pins and rings—trailing in trig—the final dances and banquet—begging tire-saving parents for the trip over the mountain—graduation and gazing into the future!!

Course of Study

Several outstanding changes have been made in the course of study at Lane during the last three years. The main one is the addition of the junior high school. Pupils in this "eighth grade" are under the guidance of teachers who study their abilities and interests and formulate a suitable program accordingly. In these important earlier years much stress is placed on good habits, right attitudes, and the knowledge required to make good citizens.

Pupils in the senior high school have a number of different courses to pick from. There are three diplomas offered to graduates—general, commercial, and college preparatory. All of these diplomas offer practical training for the student for making a living and taking his place as an active citizen in his community. Pupils may receive training in industrial arts, college preparatory subjects, home economics, and subjects in preparation for those pupils who plan to follow a commercial occupation.

The school also provides physical and health education for every student. His cultural side, too, is not neglected, for Lane has ventured far in the field of music, dramatics, and art.

The Chain

This year's annual really had a standard to keep, for at the S.I.P.A. Conference in Lexington, The 1941 CHAIN was awarded the Class "A" trophy which we proudly called "Sophelia".

After the conference Noble Sneed and his 1942 staff set to work to make the CHAIN even better than before. The three representatives chosen by the Junior class began their period of apprenticeship. Conferences with the printer and engraver completed the preliminary planning.

By December all class pictures had been taken and the activity pictures were being taken.

After Christmas the staff was busier than ever: write-ups to come in, completion of pictures, directory cards to be turned in, identification of pictures, typing to be finished, proof-reading, completion of dummy; then—the roll of printers' presses, drying of ink, and—the 1942 CHAIN. Here it is!!!

The Girls' Senior Hi-Y with Patsy Davis as President and Mrs. Julia Alderman and Miss Lillian Butt as sponsors had a very successful year.

At the beginning of the term, a tea was given for the new girls at Lane. At this time the girls became acquainted with one another. In November four delegates were sent to the State Hi-Y Conference held in Martinsville, Va. At this conference Patsy Edwards was elected President of the State Girls' Hi-Y.

At Christmas, the girls collaborated with the boys in a Christmas assembly. They also dressed dolls for the needy children of Charlottesville under the supervision of the Mother's Club. During the remainder of the year a Mother-Daughter Tea and a Faculty Tea were given.

The highlight of the year was an informal Girl-Break Dance. The Girls' Senior Hi-Y also sent delegates to the District Conference held in Staunton, in March. They attended different churches once a month during the year.

As in previous years, the main project of the Boys' Hi-Y was the distribution of Christmas baskets to needy families. Magazines were also collected in January and sent to the nation's army camps.

The club gave the Christmas assembly with the choir, and sponsored several dances during the year, the best of which was the Annual Best Girl Banquet and Dance on April 17.

A series of speeches by older men on their vocations was given during the year to aid the boys to decide on their life work. Along with the other Hi-Y's, the club attended church in a body once a month, visiting as many different churches as possible.

In March several delegates were sent to the District Four Conference in Staunton, and it is hoped that some boys will be able to attend the National Conference to be held in Ohio this summer. Gerald Speidel, sponsor, has rendered invaluable service to the club this past year.

The Girls' Junior Hi-Y was organized in 1937 as a branch of the Senior Hi-Y. Since then it has kept increasing its activities in cooperation with the senior group of girls.

With them this group has attended the different churches of this city, sponsored the dressing of dolls at Christmas for the Mother's Club, and also the January Girl-Break Dance and the Mother-Daughter Tea. At Christmas along with the other Hi-Y Clubs they held a lovely and impressive assembly.

Also in the war emergency the club did work for the Red Cross such as knitting scarfs and sweaters.

Their aim this year has been to improve character development in its members.

Most of the activities of the Boys' Junior Hi-Y have been in cooperation with the Boys' Senior Hi-Y. The Boys' Junior Hi-Y helped the Senior Club to collect and distribute the Christmas baskets throughout the city.

Frequently the two boys' clubs met together to listen to talks on certain vocations by prominent business men of this city.

In November the Junior Hi-Y gave a party for its members and their guests at the home of Mr. Gerald Speidel.

The Boys' Junior Hi-Y was founded to extend the work of the Senior Hi-Y and to prepare boys for membership in the Senior club, although being a member of the Junior Hi-Y does not automatically make you a member of the Senior club when you become a Junior in High School.

Under the leadership of Haywood France, president, the Lane Student Council has completed a very active year. The climax was the State Council Convention, held here May 1 and 2.

Several of the school's most useful organizations come under the Student Council. Under its direction, the Senior Sponsors aid eighth grade pupils in adjustment to high school life. Under its sponsorship, the Social Committee and the Ushers Club function to make school life run more smoothly. Barbara Bishop headed the Senior Sponsors, Johnny Lancaster was chairman of the Social Committee, and Haywood France was leader of the Ushers Club.

The Girls' Glee Club has as its primary aim the promotion of music. This is attained through singing songs of a higher level as well as acquiring information about contemporary and earlier well known composers.

Each alternate year the Glee Club, in conjunction with the Boys' Glee Club, presents an operetta.

This year the Club's program has consisted of meetings devoted to a special phase of contemporary music. At Christmas, the usual exchange of gifts was replaced by the collection and arrangement of a basket of food for a poor family.

The highlight of the spring term was the presentation of an assembly together with the Boys' Glee Club, tracing the development of American music from its earliest stages to the present day.

The present membership of the Boys' Glee Club of Lane High School numbers twenty-five, of whom nine are new members who were taken into the club at the beginning of the past semester.

The activities of the club have been to assist in the work of creating better and more entertaining assemblies. The club has participated in two assemblies and has sung, in parts, such songs as "Stout Hearted Men", "Anchors Aweigh", and innumerable others. The club has contributed to the music fund of Lane High and has helped to create a better singing morale throughout the whole school.

From this club has come the "Prickly Heat Trio" composed of Joe Smith, James Hageman, and Robert Wood. This small group has added much mirth and glee to the school assemblies and has sung on various occasions outside of the school.

With the advent of music classes here, the Lane High Choir was the first major step towards trained choral work. The choir, composed entirely of the best voices in the school, has but two years of work behind it; yet it already has a reputation of which the entire student body can be proud.

To Mrs. Catherine Martin, the director, goes the credit of creating the choir and establishing it so definitely in the school life.

To the choir goes the credit of working together patiently and carefully, and cooperating with the director until the desired result was obtained. To the student body goes the credit of supporting the group and accepting the results with enthusiasm.

The main activity of the Spelling Club during the fall term was that of the series of contests held throughout the school. There were three contests to decide the winning homeroom for each class. Then the eighth grade lost in a match against the freshmen, who also beat the sophomores. The freshmen finally met their match when they spelled against the juniors, and the juniors turned around and outspelled the seniors. The winner of the entire contest was Betty Pace.

The members of the Spelling Club were given a written examination to decide who would represent Lane in the annual State spelling contest.

The Lucy T. Jones Creative Writing Club was established at Lane for the purpose of developing creative writing among the students. Through the cooperation of both members and sponsors, the club has become one of the most successful at Lane.

Great work is being done, and the club contributed about fifty per cent of the material for the February edition of the school's literary magazine, the Bumblebee. Jean Sadler, the president of the club, is also editor-in-chief of this magazine. Other members of the Bumblebee staff are Peggy Goodwillie, Shirley Saunders, Betty Anne Hawthorne, Philip Peterson, Joanne Benton, Janice Buys, Ruth Vest, and John Fierro. Also, the sponsors are Richard Meade and Mrs. Katherine Meade.

In September, 1941, Lanetime became the new name of Lane's newspaper, formerly known as The Midway Student. The publication appears approximately every three weeks. A picture section, Scholastic Roto, has been added to the regular six-page edition.

The staff consisted of members of last year's journalism class and of new students who have had previous training in newspaper writing. The editor-in-chief was elected by the staff members; the other officers were appointed.

Lanetime received a First Place Award at the annual Southern Interscholastic Press Association in Lexington. This achievement was due to the efficiency and interest of the organization.

The staff wishes to thank the student body for its cooperation in the subscription campaign at the beginning of the first term. The number of pupils receiving the paper during the past session was considerably larger than in previous years.

The Lane High Players Club is organized for the sole purpose of promoting dramatics in the school. Its members, feeling that the theatre has a real place in high school life, seek to entertain the school as a whole through the medium of drama, both on the stage and over the public address system.

The chief activity of the Players Club is its annual three-act play. This past year the chosen production was Icebound, by Owen Davis, which was presented December 4 and 5.

Among the minor activities of the club are numerous one-act plays and skits presented at the meetings for the entertainment of the members and for the purpose of trying out candidates for admission. The club also gives radio skits for the benefit of the entire school.

This year the Art Club of Lane High School has been very active.

At the beginning of the term, eleven new members were initiated, making a total of twenty-one members.

After becoming thoroughly organized, work was started on Christmas cards, posters, and illustrations for the Bumblebee. Some of the members have drawn for Lanetime and others for the Chain.

Under the guidance of Miss Berrey, sponsor, and Ruth Crenshaw, President, the Art Club has accomplished much to promote art during this school term.

The members of the Latin Club believe that an acquaintance with the civilization of Greece and Rome will help them understand the world of today, which is indebted to ancient civilization in its government, laws, literature, languages, and arts.

The programs have included talks on "Ancient Customs at Yuletide", "Festivities of the Saturnalia", "The George Washington of Ancient Rome", "Origin of the Names of the Months". Also, members have presented a one-act play in Latin, the Christmas story in Latin, and an original translation of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address. Other activities have been social gatherings at the homes of various members.

LANE-CULPEPER GAME

Varsity Football

Resume'

LANE-CULPEPER

The Lane varsity started the season with a bang on September 19 by beating Culpeper 6-0 in a close, hard fought game. The first quarter was tight, but in the second quarter a Culpeper fumble was recovered on her own three-yard line. All the backfield contributed in carrying it to the five, where Campbell took it over for the only score of the game. Culpeper's fighting warriors got within the Lane ten-yard line twice in the second half with their vaunted air attack, but both times the line held. Barnett and Campbell played an outstanding game in the line and backfield, respectively, in the 6-0 victory over the Class "C" Champions.

LANE-PORTSMOUTH

The first night game of the season took place in Portsmouth on September 7, Lane coming out on the short end of a 12-0 score. Portsmouth set up her scores with powerful off-tackle thrusts. Lane's offense clicked until the team got to pay dirt where they bogged down. Lane made only one threat, a long march in the last quarter led by Long. Lane's center, Wade, was injured in this game and was out for the rest of the season.

LANE-ALEXANDRIA

In the second straight night game Lane lost 15-0, although the team outplayed George Washington. They excelled their opponents in every department, but G. W. capitalized on several breaks to score. Curtiss Kirby, former Lane-ite, led Alexandria to victory with his running and long high kicks. Lang excelled in the line while Campbell and Kindred led the running attack as usual.

LANE-LYNCHBURG

After an open date Lane traveled to Lynchburg on October 18. The Lane-ites looked as if they were going to pull an upset by threatening in the first quarter. But after the first quarter it was a rout; for Lynchburg, led by Blanks, scored at will, although our team fought valiantly against their heavier opponents. The score was 26-0.

LANE-SALEM

In the second home game of the year, the underdogs from Salem defeated Lane 12-0, in a steady drizzle in Scott Stadium. Lane showed a revised line-up, but this failed to save the day, for Lane never threatened seriously after Campbell carried the ball into enemy territory with a long run early in the game.

LANE-DANVILLE

Traveling to Danville on October 25, Lane suffered another defeat to the tune of 26-6. Redman, Danville halfback, scored two of the touchdowns and paved the way for the rest. Campbell got off several nice runs, and Kindred made our only score on a last quarter run of 27 yards.

LANE-THOMAS JEFFERSON

Lane finally got in the groove on November 7 and gave T. J. a run for the money. In a first-quarter assault Lane penetrated the T.-J. ten-yard line but was soon stopped. Strickler, standing on his fifteen, kicked a perfect field goal to put Lane in front 3-0. Fighting valiantly and aided by Campbell's magnificent punts, Lane pushed T. J. around for three quarters. But finally, when the game seemed in the bag, the Richmond team threw a long desperate pass that connected on our one-foot line. On the next play they drove it over for a final score of 6-3.

Second Row: J. Failes, B. Turner, T. Phillips, P. Kennedy, W. Marshall, B. Moore, E. Bishop, G. Cook, E. B. Smoot (Coach).

Third Row: G. Eary, G. Granger, E. Ullom, B. Breeden, R. Davis, D. Lesher, W. Roudabush, D. Deane.

LANE-V. S. D. B.

With their offense clicking on November 14 the Lane-ites walloped a fast V.S.D.B. eleven, 40-14. Although the visitors scored first on a pass, Lane scored four touchdowns with Campbell, Price, and Kindred all going over, to leave at the halftime with a score of 26-14 in our favor. The offensive stars of the game, Kindred and Campbell, scored again in the last quarter to win 40-14. Barnett, Hogue, and Holland showed up well in the line.

LANE-FREDERICKSBURG

Playing heads-up football for the third straight week, Lane made the last game a successful one by downing Fredericksburg 25-7. Fredericksburg, aided by two penalties, scored within the first two minutes. But this lead was short lived, for on Lane's first play from scrimmage, Kindred was tackled but lateraled to Campbell who raced 70 yards for a touchdown. Shortly afterwards Campbell again broke away, this time for 60 yards to the fifteen, from which Kindred scored to make the halftime score 13-7. Lane continued this spree and scored two more touchdowns in the last half. The line, led by acting captain Barnett, stopped their opponents' running attacks dead. Holland Hogue, and Hamm also played well in their last game.

With the arrival of spring came tennis, and both boys' and girls' groups began to practise with high hopes. The teams had veterans of last year who helped greatly. With them came a flock of "green horns" who were eager beginners, and some are very promising for next season.

The teams' matches this year were largely intramural and added greatly to the school's increasing interest. Although tennis does not merit a major "letter", it is an up-and-coming sport at Lane.

Girls' Varsity Basketball

Imogene Marshall, fourth-year varsity player, well proved her ability as a leader and a player.

Virginia Dudley well led her guards through a perfect season.

Ann Best, sharp-shooting diminutive fourth-year varsity player, was high scoring forward for the season.

Kathleen Thomasson, a newcomer to the varsity, showed outstanding teamwork the whole year.

Patsy Davis, lanky fourth-year varsity player, did outstanding work at her guard position.

Stella Allen, pint-sized player from McIntire, proved faster than any guard on any opposing team.

LANE-FLUVANNA GAME

Resume'

Winning every game but two, Lane's basketball team for the 1942 season had the most successful year since Mrs. Julia Alderman has been coach. The team showed perfect teamwork, however, only after hours of endless practice and preparation. The squad was led through the season by Co-Captains Imogene Marshall and Virginia Dudley.

The season was opened November 17 by a game with Jefferson School of Commerce. Fast playing and side-line passing placed Lane on the long end of 46-16 score.

On November 21, Lane's sextet nosed out Greenwood's county champions in our second game of the season. Greenwood rang up the first score. However, our girls got into pace and at the half were leading 23-11 and, when the game was over, were still ahead 30-24.

The Lane sextet proved again to be on their toes November 28 in a practice game with the Alumnae. Ann Best was high scorer of the evening, scoring 18 points. Lane led in the final score 25-12.

The most exciting game played in our gym during the season was with Fluvanna. The teams were so evenly matched that winning or losing was a matter of which team shot the last goal. It was a hard fought game, but Fluvanna came out one point ahead, the final score being 16-15.

In a game on December 5, the Lane squad triumphed over the Independents of the city. Lane soon got in the lead and stayed there until the final score was 47-12.

Lane marked another victory of the season when the girls defeated McIntire 35-14. At the end of the first half the score stood in favor of Lane, 22-8. Ann Best totaled 12 of the points while Imogene Marshall and Kathleen Thomasson added 13 points to the final score.

The Lane squad next engaged in a double-header against the V. S. D. B. squad in Staunton. There was perfect teamwork throughout the game and 53 points were scored by the Lane-ites while the opponents scored only 11.

On December 12, the Lane-ites went to Fluvanna, hoping to stage a comeback against the undefeated team. However, it seemed that the odds were against them and even after a splendid fight the opponents led 29-19.

In the last game before Christmas Lane played hostess to the Independents again on December 18. Because of the outstanding teamwork showed by the Lane squad they easily won in a victory 38-14.

Three of the Lane teams were used in the game with Earlysville. Phyllis Faulconer, Eleanor Sclater, Kathleen Thomasson, and Ann Best were in the limelight as forwards. LuVera Woodson, Stella Allen, and Virginia Dudley were outstanding for close guarding and clever floorwork.

The score of the game with Meriwether Lewis was 29-9. Again the squad showed perfect teamwork.

The season ended with a glorious victory, 57-11, over V. S. D. B. Pint-sized Ann Best rang up 14 points in the first quarter and 22 points in the entire game. Kathleen Thomasson accounted for 11 points while Imogene Marshall dropped in 14 points. Mary Morris and Phyllis Faulconer scored the other 10 points. In the defense line Stella Allen, Patsy Davis, and Virginia Dudley showed the opposing team how to play ball.

Lane's Junior Varsity met St. Anne's team March 12 in St. Anne's gym. Overcoming the handicap of taller players, Lane scored the first points and at the half were leading 10-4. The opposing guards would pass the ball to their forwards only to have it intercepted by members of the Lane squad. The battle ended 18-10 with Lane's forces leading.
